Have you ever thought of giving the gift of stock to generate an income tax charitable deduction?
Cashing in your stock investment comes with a price tag in the form of capital gain tax. Many charitable minded taxpayers have discovered that they can reduce or even eliminate capital gain tax by using their appreciated investments to fund their charitable objectives. A well planned gift of stock may let you generate an income tax charitable deduction based on the full fair market value of the stock. Check with your investment counselor to see if this might work for you!

Giving Hope

Dear Friends,

As we gather to celebrate the Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time, the last Sunday before the season of Lent, we were challenged by Saint Paul to do everything for the glory of God. Further he urged us to work for the common good rather than our own. What a valuable lesson for us! Maybe this valuable lesson of selflessness can be the fruit of the rigors that we will undertake during the impending Lenten Season.

This Wednesday is Ash Wednesday! Masses will be celebrated at 7AM, 9AM and 7PM. Ashes will be distributed after the homily at the Masses. We will also have a prayer service at 4PM to accommodate those who may not be available for the morning or evening Masses. This, of course, is the perfect way to begin our forty days of more intense prayer, fasting and works of charity. Also on Ash Wednesday we will have a collection which will support the dynamic work of our Saint Vincent de Paul Conference here at Saint Robert's. This organization is the charitable arm of all the contributions made on this day and the continuous contributions made to our poor boxes throughout the year. I am deeply indebted to the work of these men and women who are such good stewards of your sacrifices and at the same time the compassionate face of our parish community to those in our local area in need of assistance. I know you will be most generous to this annual collection for our conference.

Also, speaking of charity, this weekend marks the kick-off of our parish's participation in the annual Catholic Charities Appeal. Please take a few moments this weekend to view the video from Archbishop Chaput on this most important work of our local Church. You should have received a direct mailing for this Appeal and so I urge you to complete the form and remit your donation directly to the Appeal Office. For more information, or for online giving, please visit their website at www.catholiccharitiesappeal.org. Thank you for your kind consideration to this work of "GIVING HOPE" to others!

Of course I am also going to ask you to consider a contribution to our parish campaign BUILDING ON OUR FAITH...EXPANDING OUR LEGACY! We are making progress with the development of the project. Architectural plans are now complete and we are now awaiting the construction company to review those plans and to seek the necessary township permits for demolition and construction to begin. It is our hope that we will be commencing on the parish office center by mid-March and the narthex construction sometime after Easter in mid-April. At this point in time, the entire project is scheduled to be complete by December 1, 2015. Please keep the success of this project in your daily prayers and consider making a contribution if you have not done so already.

May Saint Robert Bellarmine bless our Lenten sacrifices!

With prayers,

Monseigneur Beisel

Our parents are daily models of love and service. Our teachers show their love and concern for the children and all members of the community by their words and actions. Our children are living examples of God’s love present in our lives.

FOCUS ON FAITH

ASH WEDNESDAY is February 22, 2012

Joel 2:12-18; 2 Corinthians 5:20-6:2; Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday. The season is cloaked in the rich, liturgical color of royal purple. Flowers are absent, music is sparse and the Church quietly but firmly ushers in a reflective “time-out.” It is time for serious penitential and baptismal reflection. Let simplicity leads us to the barren desert. It is time to take stock and assess our growth in the Christian life. Let us ask ourselves,

Where is the need for healing and reconciliation in our lives? Am I ready to embrace the Lenten practices of PRAYER, FASTING, and ALMSGIVING?

“A clean heart create in me, O God, and a steadfast spirit renew within me.

Cast me not out from your presence, and your Holy Spirit take not from me.” Psalm 51

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) — On Sunday, February 22, those in RCIA, Tom Black and Ryan Centafont will go to the Cathedral Basilica of SS Peter and Paul to celebrate with others across the Archdiocese the Call to Continuing Conversion. They are now ready to enter the Period of Enlightenment during the season of Lent. Please keep them in prayer as then enter more deeply the mysteries of our faith. Like each of us, they will examine the Gospels of Lent, with an eye towards strengthening their relationship with Jesus. Please keep them in your prayer!

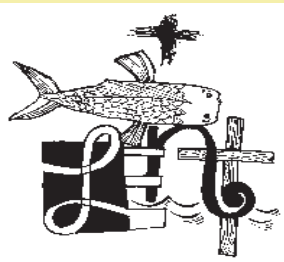

If anyone is interested in exploring the possibility of becoming a Catholic or are baptized and would to be confirmed and receive First Holy Communion, please contact Joan Fitzpatrick @ 215.343.0315 OR jfitzaff2@verizon.net.

THE DATE NIGHT OPPORTUNITY - A report by the National Marriage Project at the University of Virginia identifies one-on-one "couple time", as an opportunity to strengthen a marriage. The title of the report is: "The Date Night Opportunity."

Bradford Wilcox & Jeffrey Dew, authors, write that "Date Night" programs are likely to strengthen the husband wife relationship in at least five ways:

1. Communication - going on a date with one's spouse can "foster much needed communication, mutual understanding and a sense of communion between the spouses."
2. Novelty - most couples after a few years of marriage experience a decline in the quality of their relationship because their life becomes routine and spouses take each other for granted. Date nights can break the monotony of daily life through activities that are new..
3. Eros - Going on a date gives the spouses and opportunity to focus their attention on the relationship, share feelings, engage in romantic activities, and try new things. This can help spouses rekindle the romantic spark.
4. Commitment - Spouses that are making time to go on a date regularly solidify their commitment to each other. The one-on-one time together fosters a sense of togetherness & signals to one another & to friends & family that they take their relationship seriously.
5. De-Stress - Stress related to work, finances, parenthood, or illness can prove corrosive to the marital relationship because it causes spouses to become irritable with each other or withdrawn. Going on a date can relieve some of the stress by allowing spouses to enjoy time with one another away from the pressing concerns of day-to-day life.
