Have you ever thought of giving the gift of stock to generate an income tax charitable deduction?
Cashing in your stock investment comes with a price tag in the form of capital gain tax. Many charitable minded taxpayers have discovered that they can reduce or even eliminate capital gain tax by using their appreciated investments to fund their charitable objectives. A well planned gift of stock may let you generate an income tax charitable deduction based on the full fair market value of the stock. Check with your investment counselor to see if this might work for you!

FROM THE DESK OF MRS. JASTER

APPLE OF MY EYE: Congratulations to our latest Apple of My Eye winners: Matt McGlinchey, Joe Aquino, Antonia Mastrocco, Juliana Tulio and Matt Sorge.

YEARBOOK ORDERS: Each year, our school yearbook is filled with wonderful pictures and student art work and memories of the year gone by. Copies may be ordered at $20/each. Please check today's communication for information about how to order your copy of this year's SJR Yearbook.

GENTLE REMINDERS: Just a few reminders for the upcoming week:

- Our "Open Gym" for children five years of age and under takes place every Monday from 12noon until 1:30pm in Monsignor Marley Hall.
- Please know that whenever possible, we will take the children out for some time during lunch recess. Please be sure they are dressed appropriately.
- BLOCS financial applications: Applications for financial assistance through the BLOCS Foundation are available online at www.psas.org/blocs The site also has a Frequently Asked Questions tab to assist with the process.

FROM THE COUNSELOR: Enclosed in today's information is some information about how to foster conversations with the children about their day in school. They are a different take on "How was school today?"

Mrs. Reid will be setting a date soon to have a Chat with the Counselor in February. Her topic will be "Sibling Rivalry".

JUST A THOUGHT: During the Confirmation retreat on Sunday, the student-candidates were charged with choosing one of the gifts of the Holy Spirit and consciously seeking to use it daily. These gifts: Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Fortitude, Knowledge, Piety, and Fear of the Lord were given to us all. I wonder what a difference would be made in the world if we all consciously tried to use one of these gifts in our daily words and actions?

SJR CYO: The CYO board would like to thank everyone for coming out last Saturday night and supporting our fundraiser at the annual Super Bowl party. We also would like to thank the many volunteers that gave up time from their busy schedule to help with setup, cooking, serving, and clean up. Mark your calendars for next years party on Saturday, February 6, 2016.

FOCUS ON FAITH

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Mark 1:29-39; Job 7: 1-4,6-7; 1 Corinthians 9:16-19,22-23

Today we continue to read from Mark's Gospel, learning more about the ministry of Jesus. Jesus cured Simon's mother-in-law, and she immediately began to serve Jesus and his disciples. Jesus also cured many others who were brought to him, healing their illnesses and driving out demons. As we will see throughout Mark's Gospel, Jesus did not permit the demons to speak because they knew his identity and would have revealed it to those who were present. On the morning after this busy day, Jesus retreated in prayer, but was pursued by Simon and others who brought news that many people were looking for him. At this point in Mark's Gospel, we begin to see a distinct role for the inner circle of Jesus' disciples—they act as intermediaries between Jesus and the people. Jesus reports to his disciples that they need to leave Capernaum to preach in other places.

In today's Gospel we also notice the importance of prayer Jesus' daily life. Jesus rose early in the morning, removed himself from the crowds, and went to a deserted place to pray. When the disciples found him, he told them that it was time to move on. We believe that in his prayers Jesus found guidance and direction from God. We also bring our decision-making to God in prayer, asking for his guidance and direction in our lives.

Consider joining us before daily Mass to pray Morning Prayer during Lent!

THE DATE NIGHT OPPORTUNITY - A report by the National Marriage Project at the University of Virginia identifies one-on-one "couple time", as an opportunity to strengthen a marriage. The title of the report is: "The Date Night Opportunity."

Bradford Wilcox & Jeffrey Dew, authors, write that "Date Night" programs are likely to strengthen the husband wife relationship in at least five ways:

1. Communication - going on a date with one's spouse can "foster much needed communication, mutual understanding and a sense of communion between the spouses."
2. Novelty - most couples after a few years of marriage experience a decline in the quality of their relationship because their life becomes routine and spouses take each other for granted. Date nights can break the monotony of daily life through activities that are new..
3. Eros - Going on a date gives the spouses and opportunity to focus their attention on the relationship, share feelings, engage in romantic activities, and try new things. This can help spouses rekindle the romantic spark.
4. Commitment - Spouses that are making time to go on a date regularly solidify their commitment to each other. The one-on-one time together fosters a sense of togetherness & signals to one another & to friends & family that they take their relationship seriously.
5. De-Stress - Stress related to work, finances, parenthood, or illness can prove corrosive to the marital relationship because it causes spouses to become irritable with each other or withdrawn. Going on a date can relieve some of the stress by allowing spouses to enjoy time with one another away from the pressing concerns of day-to-day life.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In the Gospel today, we find that Jesus would rise very early before dawn and go to a deserted place to pray and then he went out to preach and to heal.

Please pray for the poor and suffering, knowing that you are bringing the love and peace of Jesus to those who live in fear and doubt, loneliness and dread.
