Thank you for your continued support of our Parish.

Dear Friends,

Today, the Church rings in the New Year by celebrating our most ancient feast of the Blessed Virgin Mary, honoring her with one of her most beautiful titles, Holy Mother of God. On this day so filled with the hope of new beginnings and good resolutions, Mary also stands before us as Queen of Peace, the woman of contemplative prayer who reflects in her heart on God's ever-renewed presence in the world. She is likewise first among the Disciples, the woman of Gospel action, who responds to God's word with obedient faith and selfless charity. As we begin this New Year, she points to her Son and says to us what she told the servants at Cana's wedding feast, "Do whatever he tells you."

On behalf of Father Tralies and the entire staff of our parish office, thank you for the many beautiful cards, well wishes and treats that came our way during this holiday season. Your generosity and thoughtfulness is deeply appreciated by all of us!

As you are aware, this week the priests and all school principals and parish religious education directors have been called to a meeting at Neumann College on Friday morning to hear the decisions that Archbishop Chaput accepted from the Blue Ribbon Commission concerning the Catholic elementary and secondary schools throughout the archdiocese. This is going to be a very difficult meeting for all of us. Although I do not anticipate any structural changes here with Saint Joseph/Saint Robert School, the closing of any school affects the entire local church. Please pray this week that what has been decided will be accepted as the work of the Holy Spirit and the wisdom of our archbishop.

This Friday is First Friday. Our school community will join in celebrating Mass at 9AM and will pray the prayer of Consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus at the conclusion of this Mass. Please join our school community to gather and pray for the blessings of the new year.

As we begin this New Year, let us pray for the continued intercession of our patron, Robert Bellarmine, and through his prayers may we grow as a community of faith marked by our generosity to others and our respect for one another.

With prayers,

Monsignor Beisel

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

Today is the feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. We hear the words: The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him." As we remember the poor during this New Year may we also grow in wisdom and have the favor of God upon us.

Please remember to support the Society of St. Vincent de Paul in the coming year so that together we can continue to bring comfort and peace to our brothers and sisters who are suffering.

There will be No Eucharistic Adoration on Monday January 2nd. Adoration will resume on Monday January 9th.

APPLE OF MY EYE:

Congratulations to our latest "Apple of My Eye" winners for the 2011 – 2012 year!

CHRISTMAS BREAK:

The children will begin Christmas vacation beginning at noon on Friday, December 23rd. Once again, the children will be dismissed alphabetically after all buses have dismissed.

The children do not return to school until Wednesday, January 4th! Enjoy the time away!

CONGRATULATIONS, MS. STANTON: Our very own Ms. Stanton has become a grandmother just in time for Christmas! She welcomed Reese Josephine into her family on December 8th. Grandmother, mother, and baby are all doing well!

THANK YOU!: Many thanks to Mrs. Corkery and Mrs.

Oyer and their merry band of Santa's helpers for making our annual Little Elf Shop such a wonderful success! The children were all delighted with the opportunity to take care of their Christmas shopping here at SJR!

JUST A THOUGHT: "May peace be your gift at Christmas and your blessing all throughout the year!"

As we ever so quickly make our way to Christmas, I wish all of our families peace of mind and heart during the holidays and always!

VERY HAPPY AND HEALTHY NEW YEAR!
May God bless us all,
the Parish Youth Ministry

2011 ended with a joy-filled afternoon of caroling to some of our homebound parishioners. Students from our Jr & Sr High programs delivered cookies, cards and wishes for a Merry Christmas as they sang some of the favorite carols of the season much to the enjoyment of their captive audience.

Special thanks to Fr. Matt, to Sean Kelly and members of Epiphany who led us in song and to all those who so generously participated in bringing Christ's love to members of our parish.

FOCUS ON FAITH

SOLEMNITY OF MARY, THE HOLY MOTHER OF GOD

Today's reading is a continuation from the Gospel proclaimed at the Christmas Mass at midnight. In it the shepherds act upon the message they receive from the angel and go to find Jesus in the manger in Bethlehem. In their visit to the manger, the shepherds find things just as the angel had said. The shepherds' visit, therefore, is a moment of fulfillment, manifestation, and the beginning of the salvation we receive through Christ.

In the context of today's Solemnity, this reading also helps us focus on Mary as the Mother of God. The reading tells us at least three things about Mary as a mother. First, Mary is described as a reflective person, keeping the reports of the shepherds in her heart. Second, we are reminded of how obedient Mary was to God when she named the baby Jesus as the angel Gabriel had directed. Third, this reading shows Mary and Joseph faithfully observing their Jewish tradition by having Jesus circumcised. Because of Mary's faithfulness to God, she was able to receive the gift of God's Son and accept her role in God's plan for salvation. By doing so, she models for us the path of discipleship and is also called Mother of the Church. For your reflection, a poem by Madeliene L'Engle:

Mary Speaks

O you who bear the pain of the whole earth, I bore you.
You, who, when your hem is touched, give power, I nourished you.
Who turns the day to night in this dark hour, Light comes from you.
O you who hold the world in your embrace, I carried you.
Whose arm encircled the world with your grace, I once held you.
O you who laughed and ate and walked the shore, I played with you.
And I, who with all others, you died for, now I hold you.
May I be faithful to this final test: In this last time I hold my child, my son,
His body close enfolded to my breast, The holder held: the bearer borne.
Mourning to joy: darkness to morn. Open, my arms: your work is done.
