The Baptism

of the Lord

Dear Friends,

Today we stand on the threshold between two seasons of the Church year. We conclude our Christmas season celebration this Sunday, but we also mark the First Sunday of Ordinary Time. Perhaps this symbolism is meant to remind us that we are called to look outward, that because of our Baptism it is not enough just to bask in the Christmas glow; we must bring Christ to the rest of the world. In responding to our Baptism, we need to pray daily for the grace to do what God asks of us, first and foremost, witnessing to the living Savior of the world!

As we conclude this season of Christmas, allow me to once again express my profound gratitude to all who made this Christmas so beautiful. It takes many volunteers to make our church and liturgies so special and meaningful. I wish to acknowledge the work of our liturgy committee and especially those who decorated the church so beautifully. Even though there were some challenges (known only to a few) we were able to have our normal look in the church itself. I am deeply grateful to all of the liturgical ministers, the altar servers, sacristans, lectors, Eucharistic ministers, ushers and greeters, cantors, directors and choirs. I am grateful for the generous service of our seminarian, Jonathan DeMent, and our deacons, George and Mark, and Father Stokely and Father Cornely. I am also grateful to all of you, our faithful and generous parishioners, for your support of the parish through your PRESENCE and generous contributions to the Christmas collection. It was a wonderful Christmas, thanks to all of you!

Now, back to our normal routines. Speaking of that, I remind the Parish Finance Council of our regularly scheduled meeting this Monday, January 11 at 7PM in the parish office and also the Parish Pastoral Council who will meet this Wednesday, January 13 at 7PM in the school library. If anyone has a topic which should be discussed at this meeting, please contact one of the representatives listed in the back of the bulletin. If members cannot attend, please notify the parish office. Thank you!

As you can see, we are making progress on the narthex expansion. Hopefully we will see some major outlines of this new gathering space. There will be some times in January that we may not be able to accommodate funerals and/or daily Mass in church. Please know that we will make every effort to meet the needs of our parish families during the different phases of the construction during these next several months. We will all need to practice patience and some flexibility during these days. Thank you for your anticipated cooperation and understanding.

May 2016 hold for each of us the blessings of our patron, Saint Robert Bellarmine, and the graces we need to grow in truth of the Gospel!

With prayers,

Monsignor Beisel

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

After Jesus was baptized, he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and a voice was heard "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." As we give to the poor, we also can hear these same words.

As you help those who are suffering, know in your heart the truth of the words "you are my beloved in whom I am well pleased".

FROM THE DESK OF

MRS. JASTER

APPLE OF MY EYE: Congratulations to the students who were recognized for doing something good: Julia Yogis, Nina Tkach, Colin Reber, Mairead McDermott and Keegan Kulp.

HOME AND SCHOOL MEETING: Our January Home and School meeting is one that we encourage all parents to attend. We have invited Mr. Bill Brannick, the director of technology for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia to address the safe use of technology in school and at home. In an age where children are creating a digital footprint from early on, it is imperative that we work together to ensure their responsible use of technology.

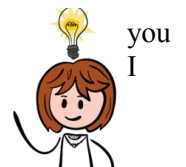

CONGRATULATIONS! : We have received word that another of our eighth graders, Michael Waltrich, has been awarded a scholarship to Archbishop Wood High School. Congratulations, Michael!

GENTLE REMINDERS:

Early dismissal: We will dismiss at 12noon on Friday, January 15th. CARES will be available for the afternoon

JUST A THOUGHT: Since we are in the season of New Year's resolutions, I thought might find this idea for "2016" interesting.

1: One thing I would like to learn this year.
 2: Two things I would like to learn this year.
 0: What will I stop doing this year to make me a better person?

1: One thing I could make a practice of that would make the world/ my family a better place.

6: Six good books I would like to read this year.

Don't forget the opportunity to honor or memorialize your loved ones through altar flowers or sanctuary lamp dedications.

Contact the parish office for more information.

A DAY NOT TO BE MISSED

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Isaiah 40:1-5,9-11; Titus 2:11-14; 3:4-7; Luke 3:15-16, 21-22

“Baptism is God's most beautiful and magnificent gift. . . We call it gift, grace, anointing, enlightenment, garment of immortality, bath of rebirth, seal, and most precious gift. It is called gift because it is conferred on those who bring nothing of their own; grace since it is given even to the guilty; Baptism because sin is buried in the water; anointing for it is priestly and royal as are those who are anointed; enlightenment because it radiates light; clothing since it veils our shame; bath because it washes; and seal as it is our guard and the sign of God's Lordship.” (St. Gregory of Nazianzus)

Through our Baptism we already live in relationship with God. God's words to Jesus in today's Gospel are his words to us. We were named "beloved" children of God, graced to live a new life which God has shared with us through Jesus Christ. We also became disciples, a name that means "learner". Being a learner is a lifelong journey! As we live out our faith, we learn from Jesus, master teacher.

Pause and think about this: His mission is now our mission, to preach good news to the poor, proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind. Anointed by the Spirit we are empowered and responsible to live it out daily! Christ has no body now but yours. (St. Teresa of Avila)

RECONNECTING WITH YOUR CATHOLIC FAITH?

Pope Francis' Encyclical: ON CARE FOR OUR COMMON HOME

An informal presentation and discussion

Tuesday, January 26 following the 9:00

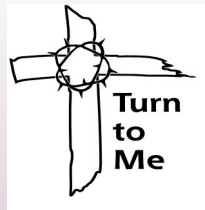

The Holy Father's recent encyclical has shone a spotlight on how Catholics, and in fact the whole of humanity, should react in the face of environmental change. What did the encyclical actually say? Is the environmental crisis a reality? What can you and I actually do to help? Come to this informal presentation on the encyclical, the state of the environment, and creation care.

Presenter: John Humphreys is a scientist, conservationist, wildlife gardener and convert to the Catholic faith. He frequently writes on the environment, particularly in the context of Christianity and the Christian response to creation care.

RESPECT LIFE -

Abortion on demand was built on lies and continues today with lies and deceit. "We fed the public a line of deceit, dishonesty, a fabrication of statistics and figures... We fabricated polls which indicated that 85 percent of the public favored unrestricted abortion, when we knew it was only 5 percent. We unashamedly lied, and yet our statements were quoted [by the media] as though they had been written in law."
