The Baptism

of the Lord

Dear Friends,

This weekend's celebration of the Baptism of the Lord concludes the Christmas season for this year. Long after the trees have been taken down and the lights and ornaments put in storage for next year, the Catholic Church continues to celebrate the meaning of the great feast of the Incarnation. After last week's manifestation in the Epiphany, Jesus is now manifested as the Son of God, ready to begin his mission. We who are baptized like Jesus also have a mission. God is calling us his "beloved" now and our mission is to bring his love to the world in which we live, work, play and pray!

Yesterday in the Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul, Archbishop Chaput recognized men and women throughout the archdiocese who have contributed to the work of catechesis by instructing young people in the faith. This year we have two members of our parish who received such recognition. We congratulate and thank GINNY MORRIS who received the Saint Charles Borromeo Award for twenty-five years of service in our PREP program. Also we congratulate and thank PATTI HESSLER who received the Our Lady of Guadalupe Award for fifteen years of service to our young students in PREP. We are grateful and proud of Ginny and Patti and all of our catechists who give so much of their time, talent and faith to the young members of our parish. I also thank Donna Heeney and Diane Loschiavo for their work in organizing and administering such a wonderful PREP program. Thank you one and all!

The Parish Pastoral Council will meet this week on Wednesday at 7PM. If anyone has something they wish to be discussed at this meeting, please contact one of the representatives listed in the back of this bulletin. If any member cannot attend, please contact the parish office.

We continue to make progress with our building renovation and expansion project. We are awaiting a permit to begin the demolition of the Cranney Learning Center and the necessary permits to begin the reconstruction of that area of the campus. We continue to trust in the generosity of our community to pledge and /or donate to this worthy cause. As we have repeatedly said, this project has the good of the entire community in mind in its development. We need everyone's assistance in meeting the financial challenges that this project will demand.

May Saint Robert Bellarmine, our patron, bless the work of our parish throughout this new year!

With prayers,

Monseignor Beisel

Have you ever thought of giving the gift of stock to generate an income tax charitable deduction? Cashing in your stock investment comes with a price tag in the form of capital gain tax. Many charitable minded taxpayers have discovered that they can reduce or even eliminate capital gain tax by using their appreciated investments to fund their charitable objectives. A well planned gift of stock may let you generate an income tax charitable deduction based on the full fair market value of the stock. Check with your investment counselor to see if this might work for you!

Two of our parish catechists were recognized at this Mass. Ginny Morris received the St. Charles Borromeo Award for 25 years of service. Patti Hessler received the Our Lady of Guadalupe Award for 15 years of service. Preparing for the World Meeting of Families:

Love is Our Mission: The Family Fully Alive is the catechism used for preparation. Each month we reflecting on one chapter from this catechism. For previous months' reflections, visit: PhillyEvang.org/wmof. We have copies of this excellently prepared catechism. The cost is $10, Please contact Joan Fitzpatrick if you would like to purchase a copy.

January 2015: Chapter 3: The Meaning of Human Sexuality "Love is Our Mission" because God created us for a reason: to love us, and for us to love one another (Chapter 1). God's covenant with Israel and the Church reveals what God's love is like: tender and passionate, but also steadfast and sacrificial (Chapter 2). In Chapter 3, we learn that the bodily, earthly world has spiritual significance. Tangible things - sacramentals, acts of charity, sacred art and culture, our liturgical feasts and fasts - have the capacity to reveal the glory of God. Marriage, as one of the sacraments, reveals this to us in a special way. The bodies of the spouses, in the complementarity of their masculinity and femininity, have the unique role of revealing God's nature as a communion of life-giving love. How can a man and a woman imitate God's love together? How can they live in a way that is intimate and committed, joyful and merciful, forgiving and fertile? Through their participation in the life of the Church, this kind of love becomes possible. God's love is not an audition, or a temporary experiment, or a self-seeking negotiation. In the same way, marriage is never a private, inward romance, but always discovers its true nature in relation to God and his wider purposes. A sacramental marriage is called to be a little parable of God's love, always ordered to joy and service. All Catholic sexual ethics flow from these ideas. In our next chapter, we will reflect in depth on marriage, followed by the next chapter about celibacy. -Dr. Christopher C. Roberts and Meghan Cokeley

FEAST OF THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Everlasting God, by special signs and wonders at the Jordan River, you revealed Jesus to be your own beloved Son. Keep us, your adopted children, faithful to our calling as brothers and sisters of the Lord Jesus, as we continue his mission in the world.

Our next topic is LIVE: Christian Morality Consider joining a small group this Lent...hearts will change, perspectives grow and your knowledge and love of our faith will flourish! Why Catholic? offers a way to examine our faith so that we can confidently live and share it each day. We meet in small groups once a week for six weeks for approximately 90 minutes.

We will begin the week of February 8, 2015. Some groups meet here at the parish and some meet in homes. New groups will be forming as needed.

We will be exploring the Ten Commandments, the Beatitudes, starting with Freedom and Responsibility. Watch for more information. Sign-up Sunday will be the weekend of January 17/18 Forms will also be available in the narthex and on the website. Books are only $10.00. RESPECT LIFE

Cowardice asks the question, 'is it safe?'; expediency asks the question, 'is it politic?'; vanity asks the question, 'is it popular?'; but conscience asks the question, 'is it right?'; and there comes a time when one must take a position that is neither safe, nor politic, nor popular; but because conscience tells one it is right.
