Dear Friends,

“On this Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Gospel continues to center on the manifestation of the Lord, which we celebrated last Sunday on the Feast of the Epiphany. From the Old Testament, we hear the call of Samuel, and with him we say, “Speak Lord, for your servant is listening.” Then Saint Paul reminds us that our call to discipleship makes us members of Christ’s Body and temples of the Holy Spirit. Finally, from the disciples who leave John the Baptist to follow Jesus we learn that being a disciple means not only staying with Jesus ourselves, but leading others to meet him as well. We cannot ignore the call to discipleship this week - our celebration makes it clear!

We are taking reservations for the bus to Washington, DC for the annual March for Life on Monday, January 23, 2012. The day will begin with Mass at 7AM in our chapel with the bus leaving shortly thereafter. We will return to the parish property sometime after 9 PM. Although this is a very tiring day, it does give you a sense of accomplishment when you join with thousands from across the country, many who have traveled for days, to stand in solidarity for the sanctity of human life. If you have never been there for this event, it may be time to come and witness for the protection of all peoples. Please call the parish office to reserve your place.

On Monday, January 16th we honor the memory of Doctor Martin Luther King, civil rights leader and activist. This is a school holiday although the memory of Doctor King has challenged many on that day to place themselves in service to the broader community. Perhaps there is something you can do in response to the Gospel mandate and the memory of Doctor King that will make someone’s life more meaningful or easier on that day.

As we are preparing to celebrate Catholic Schools Week at the end of this month, let us continue to hold up in prayer those communities who are working toward restructuring their schools for future viability and strength. We will host an Open House at Saint Joseph/ Saint Robert School on Sunday, January 29th. All are welcome to come and tour our school and to witness the great work of our parish school.

As the days of winter get brighter, may our spirits be enlightened by the hope and love of Christ.

Saint Robert Bellarmine, pray for us!

With prayers,

Monsignor Beisel

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

In the Gospel today, Jesus ask "What are you looking for?" Often we are looking for happiness in very selfish ways, but we find it is when we look for ways to make others happy that we truly become happy.

As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box, know that you are a sign of God's love to those who are suffering and you give them reason to believe and to trust.

SCRIP GIFT CARDS Please remember to purchase scrip gift cards to help you with your holiday shopping. Place and pay for special orders one weekend and it can be picked up the following weekend. FOCUS ON FAITH

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

1 Samuel 3:3b-10,19; 1 Corinthians 6:13c-15a,17-20; John 1:35-42

We learn in today's reading how Jesus' first followers were gathered. The first two, Andrew and another man, were followers of John the Baptist. After hearing John's testimony, they became followers of Jesus. During their time with Jesus, the details of which are not specified, Andrew and the other follower came to believe that Jesus was the Messiah. Andrew then brings his brother, Simon, to Jesus. Immediately, Jesus gave Simon a new name, calling him Peter, which means "rock" in Greek. The renaming of Simon to Peter is reported in all four of the Gospels.

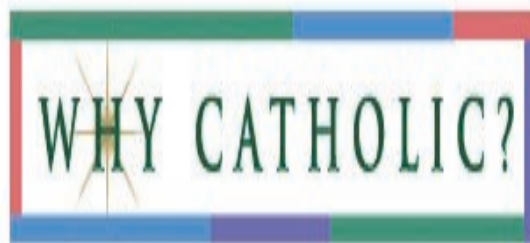

In the exchange between Andrew, the other disciple, and Jesus, we see an example of the usual pattern for first-century Jewish rabbinical schools. Jews sought out rabbis and established themselves as disciples of a particular rabbi. Jesus appears to have been unique in that he sought out individuals, inviting them to be his followers. In the passage that follows, John's Gospel tells us how Jesus took the initiative in calling Philip and Nathanael.

Jesus asks Andrew and the other disciple, "What are you looking for?" This is a telling question, and one that we might often ask of ourselves. John the Baptist testified to Jesus' identity, the Lamb of God, using the framework of the Old Testament. Andrew, Simon, and the other first disciples were looking for the Messiah, whom they also came to know as the Son of God. What do we look for and what do we find in Jesus?

Small group Sign-Up is next weekend, JANUARY 21-22 at all the Masses.

Small group faith sharing sessions will begin the week of February 12, meet once a week for six weeks and for approximately 90 minutes. Some groups will meet here at the parish and some will meet in homes. The focus for these six weeks will be PRAY: Christian Prayer. Scripture, reflections on why and how we pray, and prayer will be the format. The cost is only $10 for your book. Please consider WHY CATHOLIC? as a way to prepare for and celebrate the sacred season of Lent!

Need a reason to participate in WHY CATHOLIC?:

Society and the pressures of today offer little opportunity for us to stop and reflect on our spiritual life. Small Sharing Groups give us the time, the space, and the direction to reflect on our relationship with God and others and become more aware of the times when God touched our lives, challenged us or spoke to us. Think about being part of a small group!

Want to know more before you sign up? There will be a short information session on Thursday, January 19 at either 10:00 AM OR 7:00 PM in Cranney.
