The Epiphany

of the Lord

Dear Friends,

Today in our Christian tradition we celebrate the Epiphany or manifestation of Christ to the whole world. An epiphany can also be a new insight or realization. As we begin a new calendar year, we might want to pray for a new insight on how we can grow closer to the Lord and His Church. We may want to become more aware and realize how truly we are loved and what the gift of redemption really hold out for us in our daily living. New beginning offer new opportunities. How fresh and full of hope is the year 2016!

On this Sunday, it is most appropriate to offer thanks for the many gifts that are part of our parish community. We acknowledge so many organizations, groups, individuals and families that continue to express generosity to God through generosity to His Church. THANK YOU to all who give much or little to building our parish and its ministries and services!

May this New Year be blessed through the intercession of our patron, Saint Robert Bellarmine!

With prayers,

Monsignor Beisel

FROM THE DESK OF

MRS. JASTER

APPLE OF MY EYE: Congratulations to the students who were recognized for doing something good: Katlynn Razler, Grace Leigh, Andrew Lyons, Mena Murphy and Peter Jorgenson.

HOME AND SCHOOL MEETING: Our January Home and School meeting is one that we encourage all parents to attend. We have invited Mr. Bill Brannick, the director of technology for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia to address the safe use of technology in school and at home. In an age where children are creating a digital footprint from early on, it is imperative that we work together to ensure their responsible use of technology.

AND THE WINNER IS...:

Congratulations to Nick Sheldon, grade 2, the winner of the beautiful gingerbread house that was donated to the school by an alumni family, The Theirs!

CONGRATULATIONS! We have received word that Nicole Chesla, grade 8, has received a Presidential Scholarship to Archbishop Wood for the coming school year! Congratulations to Nicole, her family, and her teachers on this wonderful achievement.

JUST A THOUGHT:

As Christmas grew closer, this was the prayer I said for all of you:

"I said a prayer for you
As Christmas Day grew near,

That God would bless you richly
Throughout the coming year.
I did not ask for Him to send
You gifts of worldly wealth
But prayed that He would fill your life with Peace, and Joy, and Good Health! "

Don't forget the opportunity to honor or memorialize your loved ones through altar flowers or sanctuary lamp dedications.

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

Isaiah 60:1-6; Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6; Matthew 2:1-12

The Manifestation of Our God

The Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord embodies a rich liturgical tradition, originating in the earliest Christian centuries. In the Eastern Churches, this day occupies an even greater prominence than Christmas. Rome has assimilated it into the Christmas season where too often the faithful understand it to be only a commemoration of the visit of the Magi to the newborn Christ.

The account of the Magi is indeed a rich and beautiful story that shows well the virtues—and perils—of seeking Christ. However, this Solemnity reveals so much more to us! Taken together, the Gospel accounts of the Magi, the baptism of Jesus in the Jordan, and his first sign (or miracle) at the wedding feast at Cana, draw our attention to the depth of God's profound saving love for us in Christ, a love which extends to the ends of the Earth!

When do you stop this week and ponder on the love and mercy God has bestowed on us through Jesus Christ?

Take a spiritual journey this winter and count your UNTOLD BLESSINGS!

Three Thursdays —
January 7, 14 and 21

1:30 PM (Chapel) OR 7:00 PM (School Library)

In this series we will use DVDs from Bishop Barron (Fr. Barron at the time) with insights about how with God's mercy and love we can enrich our faith journey. Through Scripture, reflection and faith sharing we can strengthen the health of our soul.

Week One: Finding the CENTER in Christ

Did you know you are a saint when you know and admit you don't have it all together?

Week Two: Knowing You Are A Sinner

*God's mercy allows us to praise him, even in our sinfulness!
In his mercy, there is great joy!*

Week Three: Life is Not About You

We are called to take our place in HIS vastly larger plan of love and redemption for the world.

Please bring a notebook or whatever you wish, to use as a journal.

PLEASE RSVP to Joan @

The Kindergarten students ran into the station with their tickets punched and jumped on the Polar Express. On the train, the students enjoyed listening to Principal, Mrs. Jaster reading the classic story. As the story ended, a secret visitor had left a beautiful present at the school door. The present was addressed to SJR Kindergarten and signed by Santa! Inside, Santa had left bells for each of the students to wear. The Kindergarten students enthusiastically ended their train ride with Polar Express crafts/activities organized by the 6th grade student elves.
