ST. VINCENT DEPAUL In today's Gospel, when Jesus asks "which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" the scholar of the law answered, "the one who treated him with mercy." Jesus then said, "Go and do likewise."
This week you can also "treat the poor with mercy" by putting a gift in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box.

The Fifteenth Sunday

In Ordinary Time

Dear Friends,

Some Sundays during this Jubilee Year of Mercy, something from the scriptures just leaps out as most appropriate. The end of today's Gospel presents one such instance. At the end of the Good Samaritan story, the answer to the question about who was neighbor to the robbers' victim is "The one who treated him with mercy." This week we will come upon someone in need. How will we respond? I am too busy, in a hurry, not enough of a risk taker to reach out, it's none of my business, somebody else will help. The example of the Good Samaritan challenges all of us. How will our worship this week empower us to follow the example?

I want to acknowledge with gratitude the kind and generous donation from the Experienced People of the parish for the use of Monsignor Marley Hall this past year for their monthly meetings. Their kind expression of gratitude is deeply appreciated.

As you can see our expansion projects are nearing completion. This week there will be some internal progress that you will not see from the outside. On Monday we will begin the furniture installation in the new parish office center. This is a major step in preparing for the move to our new location. I am deeply grateful to Floss Hauschild for her work in designing the furniture needs for our offices and meeting rooms. Floss has made a major contribution in assisting with the purchasing of the furniture at a very deep discount to the parish. We need to be very thankful for her hard work in designing very functional space with a budget in mind.

In addition to Floss' work for us, I am also grateful to Tony Mastrocco and his moving and storage company. Much of the office furnishings were purchased last fall with the anticipated occupancy of the office center in December. As we all know, that did not happen. Since then, Tony has been storing the furniture in his warehouse. Hopefully this week we will vacate his facility which will free up some of his valuable space. The parish also needs to acknowledge and thank Tony for his contribution to the new parish center.

I can't wait for all of you to see the new narthex and office center! It is clean, bright, versatile, functional, and something we can all be proud of. The space will welcome people to this beautiful parish and convey that spirit of welcome. Once again, thank you to all the contributors to this project. We continue each week to receive contributions to the cause for which we are most grateful. It is never too late to consider a gift. Every penny counts towards our new look!

May Saint Robert Bellarmine bless our parish and all that we do as a community under his patronage!

With prayers,

Monsignor Beisel

FOCUS ON FAITH

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Deuteronomy 30:10-14; Colossians 1:15-20; Luke 10: 25-37

Gospel Reflection: Whenever I hear Jesus’ parable of the Good Samaritan, the song “Another Day In Paradise” (1985 hit song by Phil Collins) comes immediately to mind. I used it often when teaching my Confirmation class at St. Catherine of Siena in Horsham. In the parable, those capable and obligated to help pass by the helpless victim. The Samaritan responds with compassion rooted in a respect for humanity from the heart. The point of encounter in the parable is difference between knowing and doing. Our call to love God and neighbor is our spiritual DNA...it IS what defines us. Watch and listen to the song on the You Tube — just put in the title and it comes up right away.

Here is verse one and the refrain:

*She calls out to the man on the street 'Sir, can you help me?
It's cold and I've nowhere to sleep, Is there somewhere you can tell me?'
He walks on, doesn't look back. He pretends he can't hear her.
Starts to whistle as he crosses the street. Seems embarrassed to be there.*

Refrain

*Oh think twice, it's another day for you and me in paradise
Oh think twice, 'cause it's just another day for you,
you and me in paradise, think about it....*

The Year of Mercy once again provides the framework to living out the Works of Mercy, the Works of Love!
