Dear Friends,

The Twelfth

In Ordinary Time

Continuing with our Ordinary Time Sundays, we will hear from the Gospel of Mark almost exclusively until the end of the liturgical year. The Gospel of Mark is the oldest and the shortest, and his writing is the most succinct of all the Gospels. Scholars hold that Mark chose to write about Jesus' life and teachings in order to deepen the faith of his community in the Cross and Resurrection. In today's Gospel, Jesus is shown to have the same authority over the powers of nature that we see attributed to God in the first reading. Indeed, the disciples are filled with wonder and awe. Having heard these words, what can we say about the authority that Jesus possesses over our world today and, more importantly, over our own lives?

Today (Sunday) is Father's Day. We have been remembering the intentions of our parish fathers throughout the month of June. This Sunday all the Masses have been (or will be) offered for the intentions of the fathers whose names are on the remembrance envelopes placed in the sanctuary. God bless these men, living and deceased!

On Monday we will welcome our PREP students for their summer learning. This is an exciting time for the parish as we greet so many of our young people who are learning about God and being formed as Catholic Christians. I am deeply grateful to Mrs. Heeney and Mrs. Loschiavo for their work in preparing for this wonderful week and to our Catechists who will, by word and example, impart what it means to be a follower of Jesus Christ. Please pray for the success of this week and the impact that it will have in the lives of our young members!

Next weekend we will conduct the annual Manna Drive. This food drive helps stock the local food pantry in Warminster. It is especially important this time of year since supply tends to be depleted and the need great. Thank you for whatever you can do to support this worthy cause.

Thank you to all the families who have graciously opened their homes to our guests from Lincoln, Nebraska. We are deeply grateful for your offer of hospitality. We are still in need of many more places to house our guests. If you can, would you kindly let us know as soon as possible so that we can coordinate this effort with the Diocese of Nebraska. I am very grateful to Father Stokely for his efforts on this project and for the assistance he has received from parishioners. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the parish office.

We are still awaiting the building permits from Warrington Township concerning the renovation and building project. It is now my sincere hope that by mid-July we will see something happening! I have been told, repeatedly, that patience is a virtue!

May these summer days bring the warmth of God's love and the brightness of his grace!

Saint Robert Bellarmine, pray for us!

With prayers,

Monsignor Beisel

Dear Msgr. Beisel,

It was such a joy to have your parish be part of our annual Rose Sale in Honor of Mothers Day. We want to thank you for your participation and the great help from your pro-life group, especially Penny Clift, who helped raised $1,000. This fundraiser is a big help to our goal to raise monies for the several agencies we contribute on a monthly basis. Without your help, this would not have been possible!

Sincerely,

Chirsta Doherty (Bucks Pro Life Coalition)

FOCUS ON FAITH

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Job 38:1,8-11; @ Corinthians 5:14-17; Mark 4:35-41

How strong is your faith?

When storms come your way, how does your faith help you weather them?

Reflections on Father's Day

(from an article by Tom McGrath, author of Raising Faith-Filled Kids)

St. Joseph seems to have been a man of few words but plenty of action. Through and reflection, Tom has witnessed four wisdom principles in St. Joseph, the patron saint of fathers, workers and the universal Church.

- 1.1. Every difficult family situation is best meant with compassion. Joseph acted with compassion when he heard Mary's story. He planned to divorce her quietly instead of exposing her to shame. Sometimes we tend to act with righteousness but acting with compassion flows from human connection rather than separateness. Compassion demands that I see my wife, my child, a co-worker, as a person.
- 2.2. Expect God to speak to you. And be willing to listen. Joseph listened to the angel when told not to be afraid to bring Mary into his home. He acted decisively when he must have been bewildered. Many times we are in bewildering situations with our children. In prayer, Tom says that the words he and his wife often receive are: "Love them through it." St. Joseph is truly an inspiration for listening and act upon messages from God.
- 3.3. Practice your religion; it will help you discover who you are and why you are here. As was the practice Mary and Joseph presented the child Jesus in the temple and learned from Simeon and Anna Jesus's great role in human history. When he was lost in the temple, they witnessed his deepening understanding of his identity and destiny. How about when we prepare our children to receive the sacraments? We have the privilege of being the first witnesses of the faith to our children. We have the pleasure of watching them experience God's mercy and love present to them everyday!
- 4.4. We are all here to do some work. "I must be about my Father's work." (Mt 2:49) St. Joseph, patron saint of workers, built things, solved problems and restored broken items. It is not surprising that his son's teachings were full of references to work: "A sower went out to sow"; "A man built a tower"; "A woman came to draw water from a well." Parenting children is work...physically, emotionally, and spiritually. How consoling to have the tools of the carpenter at our disposal—compassion, attunement to God's word, life-bringing religious practices and an awareness that God is at work in the world and at work in me.

Thank you St. Joseph, for inspiring the work of being a father!

YES! IT'S PICNIC TIME AGAIN!

NOTE: This year's Picnic will be held at Archbishop Wood High School due to construction at St. Robert.

St. Robert Bellarmine Church will host a gala picnic for physically challenged people. When: Saturday, July 11th from 11:00AM to 7:00PM. This is the annual event which the late Father John Nees started 47 years ago.

All you volunteers who have helped in the past: it's time to sign up again! People who have not volunteered: think about donating one or two hours at this one-day-a-year party. Volunteers and guests enjoy a day of music, food, and games. We need over 100 volunteers to make this picnic a success!

The Physically Challenged Picnic is in need of a chairperson and co-chairperson for the ladies restroom for the day of the picnic, Saturday, July 11th. In fact, most of the chairpersons are past retirement age and we truly need additional help.
There are usually 2 short meetings each year, and the 1 day of the Picnic. Please consider becoming a chairperson. The benefits are heavenly!!!
