The Thirteenth Sunday

In Ordinary Time

Dear Friends,

As we gathered today to celebrate the Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, we encountered two subjects in the scripture readings – God’s dominion over illness and death, and the power of faith. We know that as human beings it is inevitable that we will personally encounter both illness and death. Our reassurance is that God is with us at those times. This is the power of faith, this is our hope in God, this is our trust in the Savior. Our prayer this week could be for a strong faith in God so that we will be able to meet these challenges when they come to us or we should pray for those presently encountering them in their lives. The power of prayer is limitless!

There are so many good people in our parish! I hear it all the time and I experience it myself almost every day. Recently a short note was put in the collection and placed on my desk which read: “Thank you to all the Eucharistic Ministers who are so dedicated to the sick of St. Robert’s. They take the time to call and visit so many people who really need and depend on them to bring the Eucharist and visit for a few minutes. They are truly a “God send”. This note reminded me of their weekly ministry in the parish and how much this means to our people. It also reminded me to thank them too for their personal commitment and sacrifices on behalf of our homebound. I know Father Stokely and I enjoy our monthly visits to our “Communion Calls” and we return renewed and refreshed from these visits. Bringing Jesus to those most in need carries with it its own reward and graces. Thank you one and all!

Father Justin Fulton recently sent Holy Cards to the parish office commemorating his Ordination to the Priesthood. These cards are at the entrances to the church for your convenience. Please take a card home with you and pray for Father Fulton and all the newly ordained priests as they set out to begin their special journey with and for the Lord! Also, Father Fulton is making arrangements to come east in the fall or early winter. He wants to be able to celebrate a weekend Mass here in the parish. I will keep you posted as his plans develop. It will be great to have him with us again, if only very briefly!

Well, an update on our parish project. As of this writing, the project is tentatively scheduled to begin on July 6, 2015. This will begin with the asbestos abatement in the former Cranney Learning Center. This should take about five days to complete after which the demolition of the area will commence. We are still awaiting all the necessary permits but are somewhat confident that they will be in place by these dates. You will see some construction trailers on the property in the very near future. Keep your fingers crossed – it may be beginning! Thank you to all who are continuing to honor your pledges. It is edifying to see the consistent giving from so many. Of course, there are many parishioners who are still deliberating on how they will participate in this parish effort. To quote a phrase, there is no time like the present! With that in mind, we will gladly accept your gift or pledge this week!

Please don’t forget we need to house 80 friends from Lincoln. Please complete the form in the bulletin and return it to the parish office as soon as possible. This will help alleviate the anxiety that Father Stokely is now experiencing!

May these beautiful bright summer days reflect the brightness of God’s love and grace offered to us each day! Enjoy!

With prayers,

Monsignor Beisel

Subject to change without notice

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL In today’s Gospel we see how in faith, Jarius asked Jesus to heal his daughter and how Jesus then answered his prayer. In prayer we also come to know that we are loved by God, and in that trust we ask for healing for ourselves, our loved ones and all those who are suffering.

This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul brought the love and care of Jesus to the poor. Thank You!

FOR THOSE IN THE ARMED FORCES

THE CATHOLIC CHARITIES APPEAL FOR 2015

"GIVING HOPE". With few exceptions, all of us can trace our ancestry to immigrants who came to America for a better life for themselves and their families. This is still true today. Philadelphia has long been a destination of immigrants around the world. The largest proportion of immigrants to the Philadelphia area is from Asia, and the fastest growing immigrant community is from Latin America. These are Catholics living in a new place, struggling to make a new home.

The Church of Philadelphia is blessed by this diversity and takes a variety of steps to meet the pastoral needs of immigrants. Through the Office of Cultural Ministries, pastoral care is provided to nearly 20 ethnic and language apostolates. Just as the Church was there to help the first wave of European immigrants gain access to a better life in America, so now the Church continues to meet the pastoral and spiritual needs for the next generation.

By achieving our $10 million goal, the Catholic Charities Appeal will dedicate 11% to stewardship activities throughout the Church. With our support we can surely demonstrate GIVING HOPE by helping others realize their dreams.

Remember that the Catholic Charities Appeal is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization and by law all of the funds collected must be used for the stated purpose. If you should you have any questions please contact the Appeal office at 215.587.3651 or visit www.CatholicCharitiesAppeal.org

FOCUS ON FAITH

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Wisdom 1:13-15; 23-24; 2 Corinthians 8:7,9, 13-15; Mark 5:21-43

Faith in who Jesus is and what he can do brings us to act. In the Gospel Jairus approaches Jesus's directly, kneels before him, and asks for healing for his daughter. The "woman afflicted with hemorrhages" dares not to approach Jesus directly; she simply wants to "touch his cloths" to be cured. In both cases their faith gave them courage to approach Jesus and raised their expectations that he had the power to heal. Our faith, too, gives us courage and expectation. What do we do with it? How does our faith move us to act?

The Courage to Evangelize

(to go forth each day trying to be the good news of Jesus Christ in word and deed!)

Sometimes as Catholics we don't embrace the word "evangelize" for many reasons. Maybe we are concerned with unpopular connotations of the word. Here are few suggestions to ponder and act upon

Be hospitable As a baby step for would-be-Catholic evangelists, we don't have to go very far to go start. If, for example, we just started talking to strangers at Mass on Sunday, we would be doing a lot of evangelizing. Every week, your parish attracts seekers. Someone shows up hoping for a connection to the Holy or wishing for a ray of light in their lives. They don't walk up to you and say, "Hi there. I need some spiritual support to warm my heart." They come in late, sit in the back pew, and leave early. Going forth into the night to evangelize can be as simple as walking to the back pew and saying hello.

Be merciful Lots of Catholics tense up when you start talking about evangelization. They worry you will want them to say something about Jesus to the person behind them in line at the movie theater. Here is a simple, non-threatening way to evangelize. Go forgive someone. Pope Francis said that evangelization is taking the awareness of God's merciful love to those who need it. So go be merciful and encourage your parishioners to be merciful.

Be joyful Finally, you can evangelize by smiling more. Mass is a great place to start! Have you ever wondered about whether someone was happy by watching their facial expression? Sometimes people look bored or displeased. Pope Francis said:

"Consequently, an evangelizer must never look like someone who has just come back from a funeral! ... And may the world of our time, which is searching, sometimes with anguish, sometimes with hope, be enabled to receive the good news not from evangelizers who are dejected, discouraged, impatient or anxious, but from ministers of the Gospel whose lives glow with fervor, who have first received the joy of Christ". —Evangelii Gaudium

Be courageous A Catholic evangelist might go out and knock on strangers' doors, but most of us are not going to do that. Even so, we are called to be courageous, going out into the "night" of other people's lives to bring the light and hope of Christ. We will have to get outside our comfort zones to do that, but we don't have to start too far outside the zone. Baby steps will do for now. The important thing is to have the courage to take the step.

What is the next courageous you can take??

UNTOLD BLESSINGS — Three Paths to Holiness I am looking for eight people to review a spirituality program by Fr. Robert Barron. The dates will be Wednesdays, July 1 and 8 @ 7:00—8:15 PM. Please let me know if you are interested by June 30. Joan Fitzpatrick — jfitzaff2@verizon.net.

YES! IT'S PICNIC TIME AGAIN!

NOTE: This year's Picnic will be held at Archbishop Wood High School due to construction at St. Robert.

St. Robert Bellarmine Church will host a gala picnic for physically challenged people. When: Saturday, July 11th from 11:00AM to 7:00PM. This is the annual event which the late Father John Nees started 47 years ago.

All you volunteers who have helped in the past: it's time to sign up again! People who have not volunteered: think about donating one or two hours at this one-day-a-year party. Volunteers and guests enjoy a day of music, food, and games. We need over 100 volunteers to make this picnic a success!

The Physically Challenged Picnic is in need of a chairperson and co-chairperson for the ladies restroom for the day of the picnic, Saturday, July 11th. In fact, most of the chairpersons are past retirement age and we truly need additional help. There are usually 2 short meetings each year, and the 1 day of the Picnic. Please consider becoming a chairperson. The benefits are heavenly!!!

Sign-up sheets will be available after all masses this weekend and next weekend. Also, donated desserts will be needed and greatly appreciated. Please volunteer.

Need info? Call Brian Paris 215.674.8952, Jim Cantwell 215.343.3539.

For Parents Who Have Lost a Child-An Evening of Peace & Reflection

A quiet evening of support and prayer will be held at Malvern Retreat House on Wednesday, July 1 from 5:30pm-9:30pm for parents who have lost a child. During this retreat, Holy Mass will be celebrated, and parents will be provided with candles on which they can inscribe the name of their child. These candles will be brought forward during Mass and then carried to the retreat house's Shrine for Children. To register, please visit malvernretreat.com or call 610.644.0400.
