Campaign Update

We are very grateful to all those who have been supporting our campaign BUILDING ON OUR FAITH... EXPANDING OUR LEGACY through their pledges, one time gift, use of the monthly envelope designated for the campaign, bequests and/or the sale of stocks and bonds. As of this weekend, we have received in cash and gifts a total of $960,204. In addition to these contributions, we have utilized the parish Trust Fund deposited with the archdiocese which was over $956,000. These two sources of income have allowed us to fund the project to date without withdrawing the monies set aside for us with First Niagara Bank. The parish has been approved for a loan from First Niagara for $2,000,000. We don't anticipate borrowing more than $1,500,000 because of the anticipated $456,471 in outstanding pledge payments that will be realized over the next three years.

The total cost of the projects will not exceed $3.2 million.

As you can see, we are doing quite well with the generous support of 599 of our Parish Families and Friends of Saint Robert's Parish representing 27% of our community. We have over 2,200 registered families in our parish. Will YOU consider a gift or pledge, if you have not already done so? If every families gave a gift, for no gift is too small, it would assist the parish now and for the future! Remember, EVERYONE will benefit from these projects! For more information on the work that is being done, please visit the parish website at www.saintrobertwarrington.org and click on the Expansion tab. There you will learn all about our projects and how you may assist us in making them a reality!

Building On Our Faith ... Expanding Our Legacy!

Easter Sunday of the

Dear Friends,

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. (Psalm 118)

May the blessings of this Easter Day and Season be yours in abundance! Today we followed Mary of Magdala, Peter and John to the tomb where they found the stone rolled away. Sharing their amazement, we too, in faith, find that the tomb is empty. That empty tomb stands as THE everlasting sign of hope - hope for a world free from fear, free from sin and free from death. We share in this freedom through the sacrament of Baptism. Today we renewed our baptismal promises by which we rejected Satan and all his works. At the same time we made our profession of faith in our God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. In doing this we were once again breathing the newness of life and love into our hearts and souls this Easter.

It is so good to be able to welcome so many families gathered today to commemorate this celebration of life and resurrection. For this is the feast of faith and family. We celebrate with our natural family as well as with our family born by the common waters of baptism. Your presence here today was a source of encouragement to the parish family of Saint Robert's and we hope to see you here each Sunday as we share in the continuous joy of the resurrection!

Today we also rejoice with MICHAEL STOLTZFUS who is now one with us through his Baptism and his reception of the sacraments of Holy Communion and Confirmation during the Easter Vigil last evening. We congratulate Mike and his wife and sponsor Heather who assisted him on this sacred step in his journey of faith. We also look forward to receiving into Full Communion in the Catholic Church during the Easter Season: ERIC GEORGE, ROSS SUTER, CHRISTINE CRIM, LAUREN CRIM, and BRYAN ARMAS. At that time they will make their Profession of Faith and receive the sacraments of Confirmation and First Holy Communion. We congratulate them and their sponsors and families who have participated in their acceptance into our community of faith. I also take this opportunity to express my gratitude to Joan Fitzpatrick and the RCIA team (Father Stokely, Deacon George, Donna Heeney, Ed Klenk, Brian Zook and Dot Lange) who gave so much of their time to share, teach and witness to the faith in this special process of welcoming new members to the Church. If anyone is interested in becoming a Catholic, either by baptism or a profession of faith, please contact Joan Fitzpatrick, our Director of Adult Faith Formation at the parish office 215.343.0315 for more information.

And so we gather to share with one another the message of hope that our faith in the Risen Lord assures. It is at this feast that together we join our hands and hearts to proclaim that in death there is ultimate victory because of Jesus. Today, we join in the universal proclamation of the victory of eternal life over natural death. It is in Jesus that the world of nature has been expanded to include the world and promise of the divine. Jesus came and gave us a share in His victory over sin and death!

Let us use the next fifty days of the Easter season to meditate on the great victory of Jesus and our participation in its promise. Let us take the time each day of the Easter season to proclaim in word and deed that Jesus is alive and He lives in us! Come, share with us weekly the joys of our new life in Christ!

May Saint Robert Bellarmine intercede for all of us, his brothers and sisters united in faith, hope and love.

Happy Easter!

With prayers,

Monsignor Beisel

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL - Today as we celebrate the feast of Easter we find the challenge of also seeing and believing the resurrection that comes through our own lives of self-sacrifice which brings new life to others. In the month of March, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to help the poor celebrate the joy of Easter, by assisting families, providing food, gifts, and money for utility and rent bills. Thank You

2016 CATHOLIC CHARITIES APPEAL

"A NEW VISION". There are three priests in the Archdiocese that are brothers. They are Monsignors Ignatius, Joseph and Thomas Murray. Two are retired and the third is approaching retirement. Three young men from the same family certainly wasn't commonplace. But there was a time in the Archdiocese when literally hundreds of families burst with pride as their sons answered the call of Jesus Christ. Today, along with the Monsignors Murray, that great wave of priests is aging. There are currently more than 150 retired priests in the Archdiocese. Each year that number will grow. Many of them, like the Murrays still have their health and faculties. Some "retired" still live in various rectories and serve their parishes, while others live with family members and serve the needs of the faithful in whatever ways they can.

There comes a time, however, when elderly, retired priests need assistance and care. That's why Villa St. Joseph in Darby and Regina Coeli residence in Warminster play such important roles in the continuum of clerical life. The Villa offers skilled nursing and rehabilitation facilities, and personal care for 50 retired and infirm priests. Regina Coeli currently provides an independent living community for 11 retired priests. Both Villa St. Joseph and Regina Coeli depend, to a great extent, on our generosity to the Catholic Charities Appeal. As they were there for us let us be there for them. With our help we can support the "NEW VISION". Please pray for the success of this year's campaign and be as generous as you can to this worthy cause. If you should have any questions, please contact The Catholic Charities office at 215-587-5650 or www.CatholicCharitiesAppeal.org

ST. CYPRIAN FOOD DRIVE will not be held this month. The next collection date will be April 23 & 24th. Thank you!
