Have you ever thought of giving the gift of stock to generate an income tax charitable deduction? Cashing in your stock investment comes with a price tag in the form of capital gain tax. Many charitable minded taxpayers have discovered that they can reduce or even eliminate capital gain tax by using their appreciated investments to fund their charitable objectives. A well planned gift of stock may let you generate an income tax charitable deduction based on the full fair market value of the stock. Check with your investment counselor to see if this might work for you!

Fifth Sunday

of Lent

Dear Friends,

As Lent moves into its final days, the Fifth Sunday of Lent and the days that follow give us an opportunity to reflect on how our Lenten practices have brought us closer to God. Where were you in your spiritual journey as Lent began? How do things stand now with me and the Lord? What can I yet do to bring me closer to my original hopes for this season of grace? It is never too late to begin and resolve to use the remaining days for our greatest spiritual benefit. We can always use the responsorial psalm as our mantra this week – “Create a clean heart in me, O God.”

A very important reminder – NEXT WEEKEND OUR SUNDAY SCHEDULE WILL BE DIFFERENT. OUR MASSES FOR PALM SUNDAY WILL BE OFFERED AT: 5PM VIGIL AND SUNDAY AT 7AM, 8:30 AM, 10:00 AM AND 11:30 AM. PALMS WILL BE BLESSED AT ALL OF THE MASSES AND DISTRIBUTED AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE CELEBRATIONS. THE EASTER SUNDAY SCHEDULE WILL BE THE SAME WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE VIGIL MASS WHICH WILL BE AT 8:00 PM.

Thank you to all who attended our annual Lenten Mission. Doctor Hughes was delighted with the attendance and was very complimentary of our parish. He noted the enthusiasm of the parishioners and the spirit of welcome which exudes from the community. He just experienced what the clergy of the parish have known now for years! Thank you for being you!

This Wednesday the Church celebrates the Feast of the Annunciation. This is a special day of prayer for the protection of the unborn children in the womb. Please consider going to Mass that day and to join your prayers to this universal intention for the dignity and sacredness of all human life from the moment of conception to the time of natural death.

We congratulate one of our parishioners, District Justice Dan Finello, in being named to the Archbishop Wood High School Hall of Fame. This honor is given to outstanding graduates of the high school for their extraordinary achievements and contributions to their local communities and beyond. The Induction Ceremony will take place at the high school on Saturday, April 25, 2015. For ticket information please contact the high school at 215.672.5050.

For those who accepted the invitation, please don't forget tonight's Parish Appreciation Dinner in Monsignor Marley Hall at 4 PM. For those volunteers who cannot join us this Sunday evening, please know how grateful we are for your generous service and ministry among us. YOU are the reason we are alive and vibrant as a parish community!

May the remaining days of this holy season lead you to experience the reconciliation and peace offered in the great Sacrament of Penance.

Saint Robert Bellarmine, pray for us!

With prayers,

Monsignor Beisel

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In the Gospel today, Jesus says "Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there also will my servant be. The Father will honor whoever serves me." When we help the poor we are truly followers of Jesus, servant of the poor.

As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul poor box, know that you are a sign of God's love to those who are suffering and you give them Easter hope and joy.

HAPPY FEAST DAY!: Thursday was the feast day of one of our patrons, St. Joseph. A few weeks ago, I heard Father Bordonaro say that in light of the upcoming celebration of the World Meeting of Families, he prays to St. Joseph as "Protector of Families". What a wonderful image, don't you agree? We attended the 9am Mass as a school as part of our feast day celebration.

TERRA NOVA TESTING: The children in grades 1 – 7 will be taking the Terra Nova tests next week. Please be sure that they have 2 – number 2 pencils each day. Too, as always, a good night's sleep and a good breakfast assist in the children doing their best work.

JUST A THOUGHT: "Quiet", "Hardworking", "Patient", and "Faithful" are all words that come to my mind when I think of St. Joseph. As one of our school's patrons, he provides a model of faithful service and unending trust in God. What a powerful image! Let's give thanks to St. Joseph this week and always and seek

SERVICE PROJECT

- ♦ Saturday March 28th from 9 to 12am, Tour the Aid for Friends building on Townsend Rd and help package prepared meals.
- ♦ We will also be bringing frozen meals with us. If you are interested in participating in this activity or would like to send a meal contact mompalo@aol.com
- ♦ About Aid For Friends:

With food and friendship at the heart of our mission, we discovered that many of our clients have unmet needs that threaten their independence and sometimes their very safety. In response, we developed programs providing additional aid and advocacy.

We have developed strong collaborative relationships with other social service organizations and religious groups such as Catholic Social Services, Episcopal Community Services, Deliverance Evangelistic Church, the Salvation Army and others to better serve economically disadvantaged areas. Together we form meals centers. Aid For Friends provides the meals and the other organizations help distribute the meals.

Operation Quick Serve provides interim meals and outreach services to those waiting to be matched to a volunteer visitor. We provide free meals for family members who care for seriously ill or disabled loved ones through our Caregiver Support Program. For our many clients with health issues, we provide supplemental foods such as orange juice, soup, Ensure, etc. so that they are receiving the necessary vitamins and minerals, and calories.

Our demonstration/production kitchen provides a venue for group cooks to cover any shortfall in the meal supply and to ensure variety when needed.

Aid For Friends provides essential items to our client/friends when they are not able to obtain them. These items include such as toaster ovens, fans, smoke and carbon monoxide detectors, reflective address numbers.

If our client/friends qualify for special assistance or support from other agencies, we help them access those programs. We send birthday greeting cards to our client friends and distribute donated Gifts of Warmth such as new afghans, sweaters, robe, personal items, and slippers for special holidays. Each client also receives a poinsettia at the beginning of the holiday season.

Preparing for the World Meeting of Families:

Love is Our Mission: The Family Fully Alive is the catechism used for preparation. Each month we reflecting on one chapter from this catechism. For previous months' reflections, visit: PhillyEvang.org/wmof. We have copies of this excellently prepared catechism. The cost is $10, Please contact Joan Fitzpatrick if you would like to purchase a copy.

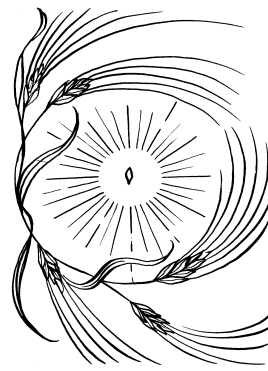

MARCH 2015

Chapter 5: Creating the Future

Sexual intimacy between a man and a woman raises the possibility of children. There are many other honorable relationships which include degrees of commitment and affection, but marriage has a unique mission: to integrate the fertility of male and female with the fidelity of God's covenant. Catholic parenting relies on the same rationale as sacramental marriage: love in the shape of service, sacrifice, trust, and openness to God's will. If and when a marriage is blessed with children, love orients parents to their children's education and spiritual formation. Jesus said to his disciples "Let the children come unto me," and it is the responsibility of all Catholic adults to shepherd children into a relationship with God and the people of God. The whole parish should be involved in supporting marriages, families and children. We build the future of our society child by child, family by family. Vatican II called the family a "domestic church," and the little church of the family takes its orientation from the faith and mission of the larger Church. It is a mother's and a father's responsibility to be with children at home and in church, and to pray together regularly. Children will learn the faith only when they are taught. The way a family responds to adversity, or gathers for meals, or makes financial decisions and sets priorities - these and many other aspects of "home economics" shape the values and identities of our children. "Love is our mission" because even in the middle of our humble daily routines, Catholics live with a bold and glorious purpose.

- Christopher C. Roberts, catechism editor

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Jeremiah 31:31-34; Hebrews 5:7-9; John 12:20-33

In today's Gospel, Jesus compares his life and ours with a grain of wheat. If the grain falls into the earth and dies, it then rises as a stalk of wheat that gives life by feeding others. Like the grain of wheat, we must be willing to lose our lives in order to gain eternal life. Jesus knows that the hour of his death when he will be lifted up on the cross is coming soon. But he also knows that when he is lifted up, he will draw everyone, Jews and Greeks and all the world's people, to himself.

What does it mean to you to hear the words "Whoever loves his life loses it...?"

To lose your life means to lay down your attachments to anything or anyone that prevents you from following Jesus.

For people your age in today's world, what might some of those things and persons be?

Who or what helps you to be a faithful follower of COVERING OF THE STATUES – You will notice this week that once again the statues and crucifix are covered. The custom of veiling the images during the last two weeks of Lent hails from the former liturgical calendar in which the Passion was read on the Fifth Sunday of Lent (hence called "Passion Sunday") as well as on Palm Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday of Holy Week, and Good Friday. For this reason the period following the Fifth Sunday of Lent was called Passiontide. Today, many churches still cover images starting this Sunday until the end of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday. The purpose was (and still is) to help us concentrate and reflect more deeply on Christ's work of redemption and prepare to enter the holiest week of the year. Take time this week and reread over and over again today's psalm response...

"Create a clean heart, O God." (Psalm 51)

POOR PERSON'S SUPPER
GOOD FRIDAY, APRIL 3

Immediately following the Passion of Our Lord

Each year, immediately following the 3p Passion of Our Lord, we gather for a simple supper in Msgr . Marley Hall. In keeping with our Lenten fast, the supper consists of pasta with or without a red sauce, salad, bread, ice water and coffee or tea. This is a long-standing tradition at St. Robert's and we would love to have you join us. There is no set charge for the meal, however, donations to pay for food and supplies would be greatly appreciated. The remainder of the donations received will be given to the St. Vincent DePaul Society. THE CATHOLIC CHARITIES APPEAL FOR 2015

"GIVING HOPE". This year's video highlighted some of the areas where Catholic Charities is able to touch people's lives.

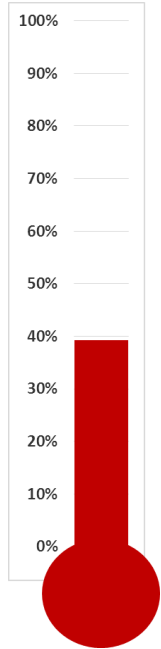

Courtney and Christopher Hanes were elated with the birth of their second child but their elation was soon tempered with the realization that their son had Down syndrome. Knowing that Mick would be faced with unique challenges they worked hard to find out how to give him not only the kind of education that would prepare him for life, but one that would also give him the Catholic identity that is so important to their family.

After carefully evaluating their options, Mick was enrolled in Our Lady of Confidence and the Hanes have never looked back. Mick, along with his classmates are taught reading, math, telling time and understanding money. In addition the program includes physical therapy, speech and language therapy, music and art.

Without the support of the Catholic Charities Appeal, Our Lady of Confidence would not be able to provide Mick and his classmates the one-of-a-kind education that they receive along with knowing their Catholic identity.

These are just a very small sampling of the services that can be provided when we "Give Hope". With our help we have the ability to sustain, and hopefully expand these worthy services. Please pray for the success of this year's campaign and be as generous as you can to this worthy cause.
