The Solemnity

Of All Saints

Dear Friends,

On this day set aside to remember all the saints of the Lord, we recall that we who live on this earth today are but one part of a church that extends back through the centuries and forward to the end of time. Just as churches have images of saints surrounding them, we are surrounded by the communion of saints, whose lives are shining examples of encouragement for us who try to respond, as they did, to the call of the Beatitudes proclaimed in the Gospel this week. Let our intention this week be to live like God!

As announced last week in my letter, today we as a community begin to discern vocations to the priesthood among us. In the bulletin this week you will listed "Qualities Desired in a Priestly Candidate" along with a Response Card. I ask that you prayerfully review both enclosures and provide a name of someone you know from the parish that would exhibit these qualities and MIGHT be open to exploring this vital vocation for the future of our church. Response cards are requested to be returned as soon as possible but no later than Sunday, November 16th. As you know, vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life have been a priority of prayer here in our parish. We have one seminarian currently in the seminary and we have three other men who have expressed a willingness to consider the priesthood as a vial option for their future. I am sure there are more among us! Asking a person to consider a priestly vocation is often times the first step in the discernment process. It happened to me when I was in the eighth grade and I will never forget it. Perhaps the reason why is that it came to me out of the clear blue. I was not expecting it but the thought was not far once I was approached by the asking. Identify someone and we will, with the help of God, do the rest.

I am aware of two recent graduates from high school who are currently preparing for service in the military. MARY ELIZABETH LYONS, the daughter of Pauline and Andy Lyons, had received an appointment this spring to West Point where she is currently matriculating and DYLAN DeMENT, son of Nina and Todd DeMent, who began basic training this week for the Army at Fort Leonard Wood in Missouri. I ask that you remember these two young parishioners in your daily prayers as well as all the military personnel who serve our country so bravely. We owe them a debt of gratitude for their willingness to serve and protect us every day.

Monday evening at 7PM we will celebrate a special liturgy for ALL SOULS DAY. At this Mass we will pray, in a special way, for all the souls of those who were buried from our church this past year. Following the Mass, there will be a social in the school library. All parishioners are invited to attend. Please submit the names of your beloved dead so that we can remember them throughout the month of November, the month of the holy souls.

On Wednesday of this week we celebrate the memorial of Saint Charles Borromeo, the patron of the Seminary for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, where most of the priests of this archdiocese were educated and trained. Please say a special prayer for your priests and the current seminarians at Saint Charles; that we may all persevere in our call to ministry to the People of God throughout the archdiocese.

Saint Robert Bellarmine, Saint Charles Borromeo, and All the Saints, pray for us and protect us on our journey to heaven!

With prayers,

Monsignor Beisel

RESPECT LIFE

40 DAYS FOR LIFE

Thank you to all who took the time to come out on Oct. 15th to pray the Rosary and stand witness to the Sanctity of Life at the Louis Drive PP.

Check Parish website for more photos from our day!!

Even though this year's 40 Days ends today please remember to continue to pray for the end of the killing of babies over at the Louis Drive PP.

Father all life is in your care. You have entrusted us to one another; that we may show our brothers and sisters the same love you have for us. We pray then for the least among us, the children in the womb. Protect them from the violence of abortion. We pray for those who are scheduled to die at the planned parenthood on Louis Drive in Warminster. Save them from death. Give new hope to their parents, that they may turn away from this desperate act of abortion. Grant conversion to the abortionist and to the staff. Show us how we are to respond to the bloodshed in our midst. Lead us to that day when this place of death will be transformed into a haven of life. Guard us with your joy and your peace, for in you, life is victorious. We pray in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

On Sunday, October 25th, our PREP families came together for one of our family gatherings. Over 450 people were in attendance participating in either in 9 or 11 am Mass and then coming over to the school building for fellowship and various activities. The families enjoyed eating "Soul Cakes" (known as donuts to all of us). We talked about how we are all called to become saints. The children created Treat bags for their family members offering to do something nice for them. Since November is the month of All Souls, each family created a Remembrance Candle to take home to remind them to pray for our loved ones and friends who have died. We also created a Memorial Shrine with the names of those who have gone before us. This shrine is hanging outside our office in school. It truly was a wonderful day celebrating our faith.

They certainly speak to the importance of the Mission of Catholic Education. If we are called to "form saints each day/every day, all of our words and actions must be consistent with that goal. As we approach the great feast of All Saints Day, let's pray for their intercession to assist us in forming saints here on earth!"

Every year the Church recalls the example, witness, and prayer of the holy women and men who have been identified by the Church as Saints. These saints are more than just role models; they are family members with whom we continue to share relation, in a bond of prayer, called the Communion of Saints. Every year when we celebrate this day, the Gospel we proclaim recalls for us Jesus' teaching about happiness, the Beatitudes. We quickly note in this reading that none of those Jesus names as "blessed" or "happy" are expected . . . the poor in spirit, the meek, the persecuted. Jesus' blueprint for happiness reflects little of what the world might call happiness.

What does Jesus mean when he uses the word "blessed?" This word is sometimes translated as "happy" or "fortunate" or "favored." In other words, Jesus is saying that divine favor is upon those who are poor, who mourn, who are persecuted. This might have been welcome and surprising news to the crowds who heard Jesus that day.

The Beatitudes can be understood as a framework for Christian living. Because of this, it is natural that we proclaim this Gospel on the Feast of All Saints. Saints are people who lived the spirit of the Beatitudes as Jesus lived. On this day, we too are challenged to model our lives on the spirit and promises of the Beatitudes.

National Bible Week 2015

November 15—November 21

Join us on Wednesday, November 18 for BIBLE BASICS and learning Lectio Divino.

What is that? Lectio Divina is an ancient form of praying with Scripture. It is a simple, insightful way to hear and experience the Word of God. It is a form of meditation practiced by monks in their daily encounter with Scripture as they prepared for the Eucharist and as they prayed the Liturgy of the Hours. It is resurfacing today as a wonderful way to meditate on God's Word.

More on the details of on form of prayer in next week's bulletin. Come to the chapel on November 18 @ 7:00PM and we will give it a try.!
