The Twenty-Third Sunday

In Ordinary Time

Dear Friends,

On this Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time we are reminded of wonderful goodness of God. This is a constant in our faith journey. Through Jesus' actions, God is extending gracious love and care to all the world, not just to the chosen people of Israel. It is this gracious love and care that provides for us the hope and encouragement we need to face whatever challenges are part of our journey in life. Let us all be sensitive this week to how we meet this love and graciousness of God in and through others.

Tomorrow (Monday) is Labor Day, a national holiday which unofficially brings to a close many of the summer activities and experiences. For many of our students, school has already become part of their lives once again. To all of our young people, in whatever stage of the academic world you are presently engaged in, I offer prayers for a successful academic year with growth in knowledge, wisdom and grace before God and the world!

Also, as we celebrate this holiday, I invite you to join me at the 8AM Mass on Monday to offer prayers of gratitude for the work we do and to pray for those among us who are currently unemployed.

We are anticipating the new PREP year which will begin on Monday, September 14th. I look forward to greeting our children and their parents in church that afternoon for the opening of this important year of religious education. I am grateful to Mrs. Heeney, our Director of Religious Education and her new Administrative Assistant Mrs. Barbara O'Neill for their work in preparing for this spiritual and academic program for our children.

Many of you have been asking about what is going on with the construction outside the sanctuary of our church on the lawn by the school parking lot. With the new narthex came the necessity to move the air conditioner/heating units from their original position outside the lobby to the front of the church. With this move came the necessity to construct cement pads to hold the units as well as a container wall to surround them. This is also the reason for the soffit removal in the church proper. Because of the relocation of the new units, the duct work needs to be reconstructed as well. When completed, the air flow will originate from the sanctuary throughout the church. With the new units we are looking for greater efficiency as well as quiet air flow.

In addition to the construction of the cement pads for the air handlers, there will be trenching outside the church for the next week for water, gas, and electrical lines as well as some work on the soffits in church. Thank you for your patience and understanding as we adjust to the ever changing terrain. As mentioned at all the Masses last weekend, there will be some changes to the liturgical schedule during the weekend of the visit of Pope Francis. On Saturday, September 26 there will be no Mass celebrated at 9AM and there will be no confession heard that afternoon. This is to allow for Father Stokely and me to concelebrate Mass with Pope Francis at the Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul in downtown Philadelphia. Archbishop Chaput has strongly encouraged the priests and deacons to participate. We have no idea of the travel challenges that day but we are planning on being back in Warrington in time for the 5PM Vigil Mass. Thank you for your understanding and support of this historic event for our archdiocese.

Last weekend I received a letter concerning reserved tickets for the Festival of Families on Saturday, September 26 and the Papal Mass on Sunday, September 27. Saint Robert Bellarmine Parish has been assigned a reserved section located approximately between 20th and 22nd Streets on the Benjamin Franklin Parkway. We will receive 308 tickets for each event. Those who have reserved spaces on the buses will automatically receive a ticket for the Papal Mass. These tickets will be distributed on the buses that day. If any parishioner, not going on the buses, wishes to have a reserved ticket, please contact the parish office as soon as possible so that we can reserve one for you. Tickets will be distributed on a first come, first serve basis FROM THE PARIH OFFICE during the week of September 21st.

May Saint Robert Bellarmine bless all of the happenings of this very busy and historic month for our parish and archdiocese!

With prayers,

Monsignor Beisel

FROM THE DESK OF

MRS. JASTER

JUST A THOUGHT: As I look forward to welcoming everyone back to school, I thought I might share the following short tale. For some parents, sending children off to school for the first time – or for each time – can be a bit unsettling. Think of “school” as the “beanstalk” in the following:

Thoughts from the Top of the Beanstalk

Once upon a time there was a little boy named Jack who was about to climb his very first beanstalk. He had a fresh haircut and a brand-new book bag. Even though his friends in the neighborhood had climbed this same beanstalk almost every day last year, this was Jack's first day and he was a little nervous. So was his mother.

Early in the morning she brought him to the foot of the beanstalk. She talked encouragingly to Jack about all the fun he would have that day and how nice his giant would be. She reassured him that she would be back to pick him up at the end of the day.

For a moment they stood together, silently holding hands, gazing up at the beanstalk.

To Jack it seemed much bigger than it had when his mother had pointed it out on the way to the store last week. His mother thought it looked big, too. She swallowed.

Maybe she should have held Jack out a year...

Jack's mother straightened his shirt one last time, patted his shoulder and smiled down at him. She promised to stay and wave while he started climbing. Jack didn't say a word. He walked forward, grabbed a low-growing stem and slowly pulled himself up to the first leaf. He balanced there for a moment and then climbed more eagerly to the second leaf, then to the third and soon he had vanished into a high tangle of leaves and stems with never a backward glance at his mother. She stood alone at the bottom of the beanstalk, gazing up at the spot where Jack had disappeared. There was no rustle, no movement, and no sound to indicate that he was anywhere inside.

"Sometimes," she thought, "it's harder to be the one who waves good-bye than it is to be the one who climbs the beanstalk." She wondered how Jack would do. Would he miss her? How would he behave? Did his giant understand that little boys sometimes acted silly when they felt unsure? She fought down an urge to spring up the stalk after Jack and maybe duck behind a bean to take a peek at how he was doing. "I'd better not. What if he saw me?" She knew Jack was really old enough to handle this on his own.

She reminded herself that, after all, this was thought to be an excellent beanstalk and that everyone said his giant was not only kind but had outstanding qualifications. "It's not so much that I'm worried about him," she thought, rubbing the back of her neck. "It's just that he's growing up and I'm going to miss him." Jack's mother turned to leave. "Jack's going to have lots of bigger beanstalks to climb in his life," she told herself. "Today's the day he starts practicing for them... And today's the day I start practicing something too: cheering him on and waving good-bye."

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL In today's Gospel we hear how Jesus "makes the deaf hear and the mute speak!" In living the gospel, we must open our ears to hear and recognize all the everyday opportunities for making God's presence known especially to those who are poor and suffering.

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can "make God's presence known" to those who are suffering and poor?

The SJR CYO Golf Outing will be held Friday, September 25th at Warminster Five Ponds Golf Course. Shotgun start at Noon, check-in at 11:00AM. The $125 cost includes green fees & cart, lunch, dinner, beer & prizes. We are looking for hole and event sponsors as well as volunteers to help with the day of event activities.

NEW! WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE CARE OF CREATION

Archbishop Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap., encouraged the clergy and faithful of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia to observe the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation on September 1, 2015. Pope Francis established this day of prayer as an annual event to coincide with a similar observance in the Orthodox Church. Students from St. Robert's attended a Holy Hour to mark this special day of prayer. They offered petitions for all of God's creation as well as for the Pope and clergy. They also ask for guidance and support as they begin a new school year.

May this day of prayer remind each of us of our role as custodians of creation.

SAVE THE DATE Saturday, October 24th will be a day of service for teens throughout the Archdiocese. Plan on participating. Many different types of service will be available and coordinated through St. Bedes in Holland. A flyer with more information is coming .

FOCUS ON FAITH

TWENTY THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Isaiah 35: 4-7; James 2:1-5; Mark 7:31-37

In this Gospel, Jesus opens the ears and loosens the tongue of the deaf-mute. All of Jesus' miracles reveal his divine power, his compassion for the human condition, his own mission. Jesus cares enough for each of us to reach out and touch us! Think about what makes us tongue-tied... intimidation, awe, mystification, fear, or maybe shock. What loosens our tongues to proclaim the Good News of Jesus? The Lord himself, his saving love, who loosens our tongues!
