Fourth Sunday

Of Advent

Dear Friends,

As we gather for the Fourth Sunday of Advent, we are mindful that Christmas is only one week away. Today's scriptures focus us on the immediate preparations for the birth of our Lord. The scriptures are about signs: God's sign to Ahaz concerning the virgin who shall be with child, and the angels' appearance to Joseph bidding him to have no fear about taking Mary as his wife. We too are finalizing our preparations for the birth of the Lord in our hearts once again. This week let us be mindful of the courage of Saint Joseph and the signs and wonders of God's providence which mark our journey this week as we await and prepare for the celebration of Christmas.

Just a reminder that the parish office will close at 12 Noon on Tuesday, December 20th to allow the staff to gather to celebrate the pending feast of Christmas. Regular hours will be held on Wednesday and Thursday. The parish office will close for the Christmas holidays at Noon on Friday, December 23rd. The parish office will also be closed on Monday, December 26th. On Tuesday (December 27) through Friday (December 30) the parish office will be open for business from 9AM until 12 Noon each day. If you need the assistance of the secretaries, please schedule your visit to the office in the morning. Please note that either I or Father Biedrzycki will be available throughout the holiday season especially if an emergency should arise.

Our church is scheduled to be decorated for Christmas on Friday, December 23rd after the 9AM Mass. If anyone is available to assist in this effort, please contact Joan Fitzpatrick in the parish office. Many hands make light work and we are deeply grateful for the time given to transform our sanctuary to the spirit of Christmas peace and joy!

With the busyness of this week, there will be one more opportunity to be reconciled with the Lord. We will have confessions on Friday, December 23rd at 7PM in the chapel. Please seize this opportunity for the Sacrament of Penance in preparation for Christmas.

We look forward to celebrating the great Solemnity of Christmas with you and your family. Christmas Masses will be celebrated on Saturday, December 24th at 4PM in the church and hall, 6PM and 8PM. On Christmas Day we will follow our regular Sunday schedule with Masses at 7AM, 9AM and 11AM. Please note that Masses during Christmas week will be at 9AM only. There will be no adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on Monday, December 26th.

Please take home a 2017 calendar provided to our parish through the generosity of the Louis Swift Plunkett Funeral Home. This beautiful calendar will keep you abreast of time and also remind you of the rich treasures of our faith.

May this last full week of the Advent Season lead you to a deeper sense of the peace that comes through the gift of Jesus Christ!

Saint Robert Bellarmine, pray for us!

With prayers,

Monsignor Beisel

JOSEPH!: Congratulations to Joseph Mazzerella, grade 8, who was selected to receive a Neumann Scholarship awarded annually by the Connelly Foundation. This highly – competitive scholarship will provide a four-year tuition grant to any Archdiocesan High School.

JUST A THOUGHT: The school is buzzing with Advent/Christmas excitement! At this time of year, it may seem that there is not enough time to accomplish all that we have on our "to-do" lists. I found the following idea gave me pause and thought it worth sharing with all:

The greatest gift you can give someone is your

TIME.

Because when you give your TIME,

You are giving a portion of yourself

You will never get back.

Let's be sure that we share our TIME with those who most need this special gift!

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Isaiah 7:10-14; Romans 1:1-7; Matthew 1:18-24

“They shall name him Emmanuel, which means ‘God is with us.’”

Emmanuel: God with us, not separate from us, not up there, not the policeman, not the old man in the sky, and not “God waiting for us to mess up.” In our heartaches and bewilderment, God is with us. In our questions and worries, God is with us. In our hopes and joys, God is with us. God is with us, within us, in our midst, for us, before us, and among us.

Emmanuel, God with us, open our eyes to the wonder of your closeness to us.

Emmanuel, God with us, open our hearts to recognize you in every person.

Is there someone you can invite back to the Church this Christmas? They may just be waiting for that personal invitation from you. Here are a few websites that may assist you or to share with others: www.catholicscomehome.org www.bustedhalo.com (great for teens and young adults!) Focused on Faith & Learning

To my St Robert's brothers and sisters,
 On December 31st I will end my 33 year association as the lay financial employee of this parish. I have worked for 3 of our 4 pastors. I remember my early days when I would line up the bills trying to decide which ones I had to pay and which ones could wait another week or so, from then right up to having over 2 million in our accounts.

I have been privileged, over these years to work with some wonderful people. Both those who have been employed by the Parish and those volunteers who strived to make our Parish, a home we can all be proud to call ours.

I have seen the great things that our parishioners have accomplished. From moving the wall in the hall to make a full size court for basketball and classrooms for our CCD, to the Education center, to the renovations of the Narthex and the new Parish Center. Your generosity has made everything possible.

And a special thanks to some of the unsung and hidden parishioners who have worked hard over the years - The Sunday Collection Counters. These women and men work all year counting your donations and seeing that they are deposited each week. Without their dedication my job would have been much harder. To those who are counting now and those who had counted in the past - Thank You.

This is not goodbye, for while I will no longer be in the Parish Office dealing with the Finances, I will still be here as the parish deacon. ( Still looking for someone to join me as a deacon).

Thank you for all your help and support. May St Robert Bellarmine continue to intercede for our parish and may God continue His blessings on all our endeavors.
